Today, Sunday Nov. 22nd, we celebrate the feast of Christ the King. We acclaim Jesus as our King, the one who died for us and rose triumphant. We offer praise and worship and ask for the grace to live as worthy citizens of his kingdom of justice, truth, love and peace. (Credit to " The Under The Ambo Book".)

By proclaiming Christ as King at the end of the year, the church prepares its heart for Advent, shifting from the celebration of Christ's present reign to anticipating his second coming.

Pray for peace

That all nations become united under the gentle and just rule of Christ the King.
