Cork Eucharistic Procession 100 years

The Diocese is preparing for a very special and historic celebration as we commemorate the centenary of the first Eucharistic Procession in Cork on Sunday 7th June 2026.

To mark this special occasion, we as a family of parishes will take part this year and walk in the procession. To make it easy for everyone we will have a bus leaving at lunchtime on Sunday June 7th leaving from Carrigaline Church at 1.15pm to the Cathedral and returning after the procession approx 5pm from the Imperial Hotel.

Anybody who would like to go on this bus drop your name into the sacristy or pop into the parish office during the week. The good news is there will be no charge for the bus. If you would like to make your own way there you can of course join up with us at the North Cathedral prior to the Procession Start time of 3pm.

Relics of St Carlo Acutis and Eucharistic Adoration

The Relics of St Carlo Acutis are coming to Cork this week for our 100 year Eucharistic Procession Programme. For full Schedule visit <https://corkandross.org/ep100-full-timetable-of-mission>

Congratulations to Fr Tiernan Burke who was ordained a priest last week in Cobh Cathedral. He has Carrigaline connections because his Mum Geraldine is originally from Carrigaline. His grandfather was Willie Cogan. We pray for Fr Tiernan on his very special ordination. They were also blessed with beautiful sunny weather!

Tracton Parish

TRACTON ABBEY PARISH congratulates Canon George Murphy P.E, who celebrates thirty years in the Parish of Tracton Abbey on Thursday 4th June.

Fr. George Murphy, a native of Kinsale was appointed Parish Priest of Tracton Abbey with effect from the 4th June 1996 until his retirement on the 10th September 2022.

He was the first serving Priest in this Parish to be elevated from Parish Priest to the title Canon. He continues to live in the Parish and to help out the Priests in our Family of Parishes since his retirement. Congratulations to Canon George on his long and distinguished career in our Parish which is always appreciated by our Parishioners. We congratulate him too, on the upcoming anniversary of his ordination on the 13th June 2026 – 58years ago

Crosshaven Parish

The Most Holy Trinity

The Feast of the Most Holy Trinity (Trinity Sunday) is a major Christian celebration that honours the central doctrine of our faith: One God in three divine persons - the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. The Feast celebrates who God is - a communion of love and relationship between the Creator (Father), the Saviour (Son) and the Sanctifier (Holy Spirit).

‘Lord make us instruments of your love
to all we meet each day.’

Our gratitude and blessings to all who organised and participated in our May Procession on May 24th.
Prayer - music - beautiful weather - we were blessed.
